A Jazz Evening with Chris Botti
Will take place at "583 Park"
Thursday, November 19, 6PM-9PM

Trumpeter Chris Botti is a gifted instrumentalist, talented composer, and charismatic performer who – since the release of his first solo album in 1995 - has created his own signature sound, transforming contemporary jazz with a soulful ambience and flowing improvisation drawn from the worlds of pop, jazz, classical and other genres, in a succession of best-selling albums including When I Fall In Love, To Love Again: The Duets, and the Grammy-nominated Italia. Following the resounding 2006 success of Chris Botti Live with Orchestra & Special Guests, in September 2008 Botti joined with Keith Lockhart and The Boston Pops, Sting, Lucia Micarelli, John Mayer, Josh Groban,

Katharine McPhee, Yo-Yo Ma, Steven Tyler, and Sy Smith to film Chris Botti Live in Boston. Tune in this March to Public Service Television (including Channel Thirteen) for the debut of this beautiful high-definition concert, which also will be released on Blu-ray, CD, and DVD. One of the world's most popular concert attractions, last year Chris Botti performed at more than 250 venues, including the Hollywood Bowl and Carnegie Hall. We take pleasure in extending the opportunity to experience this consummate artist live with our friends, whose support is so critical to our Patient Care Services.
