

Sabrina Vitulano, Au.D. CCC-A has been a licensed audiologist in New York State since 1988, working with both adults and children in diagnosing hearing loss to fitting amplification.

In 2003 she began specializing in the treatment of Cochlear Implants for children and adults.

Dr. Vitulano received her BA in speech and hearing science from the State University of New York at Buffalo, her MS in audiology from Brooklyn College and her Doctor of Audiology degree from the University of Arizona's School of Health Sciences.